This book was so, so, so GOOD!! I swear I was barely two pages in and already knew that I'd love it with all my heart! <3 There's just something about that golden Hollywood era that captivated me right from the beginning and once Evelyn entered the scene I was a goner. I just loved the way her story was told!

ELEVEN MINUTES BY PAULO COELHO
Rating 3.71
Fiction, Romance, Philosophy
Eleven Minutes is the story of Maria, a young girl from a Brazilian village, whose first innocent brushes with love leave her heartbroken. At a tender age, she becomes convinced that she will never find true love, instead believing that "love is a terrible thing that will make you suffer. . . ." A chance meeting in Rio takes her to Geneva, where she dreams of finding fame and fortune.
Maria's despairing view of love is put to the test when she meets a handsome young painter. In this odyssey of self-discovery, Maria has to choose between pursuing a path of darkness—sexual pleasure for its own sake—or risking everything to find her own "inner light" and the possibility of sacred sex, sex in the context of love. JOHN KURIAN
Coelho really out did himself with this novel. It is very intriguing and a hot read. The underlying plot will leave the reader questions the grey area that exist in morals and ethics. I really enjoyed this book and would recommend it to anyone who enjoys a fast paced, adventure with some romance on the side.
